

Having religious beliefs is seen as part of being human

But what about those who don't feel anything?

I ask myself:

Am I human?

I have no community with shared beliefs to fall back on

Religion is a way to handle the burdens of existence

How do you survive without it?

What do you do when it makes things worse?

A thing meant to bring peace bringing suffering

Everyone talks about a bright light at the end of the tunnel or ascending to heaven when they die...

I saw nothing

Other people always want me to try and feel something

I Have...

But I am empty

I want to believe there's magic in the world

And some kind of greater meaning to our existence

But I just don't

I live on without
